

The Shared Course Initiative (SCI)

In Context:

New Directions in Distance Education

May 12, 2014

TEAL Classroom | 17 Hillhouse Ave

- 8:30 -9:00 Breakfast and Registration
- 9:00-9:15 Introduction and Welcome
Joseph Gordon | Deputy Dean of Yale College, Dean of Undergraduate Education
Nelleke Van Deusen-Scholl | Director of the Center for Language Study, Associate Dean of Yale College
- 9:15-10:15 Language Learning for an Open World: Understanding the Global Impact of Open Education
Carl Blyth | University of Texas Austin
- 10:15-10:30 Coffee Break
- 10:30-11:15 A Framework for Multiliteracy Training in the Context of Collaborative Online Language Learning and Teaching
Mirjam Hauck | Open University, UK
- 11:15-12:00 Multiliteracy Skills and Multimodal Competence Through Task Sequencing in Language Education - Two Case Studies
Carolin Fuchs | Columbia University
- 12:00-1:00 Lunch
- 1:00-1:45 Communicating in German Across Cultures: From F2F to MOOCs
Ed Dixon | University of Pennsylvania
- 1:45-2:00 Coffee break
- 2:00-2:45 What Makes an Effective Language MOOC?
Maggie Sokolik | University of California Berkeley
- 2:45-3:30 Online Education: Pathways For Yale
Lucas Swineford & Craig Wright | Yale University
- 3:30-4:00 Wrap-up
- 4:00 Reception at the CLS Lobby on 370 Temple Street