Cover sheet
CLS Fellowship Application
Due: March 1, 2019

Name:

Department:

Semester applied for (circle one): Fall 2019 Spring 2020

Title of project*:

All applications for a CLS Fellowship must be endorsed by the department Chair and the Language Program Director. Departments and programs may endorse as many applications as they deem worthy. In the case of language programs based in one of the Area Studies Councils of the MacMillan Center, the Center functions as the department and the director of the Center functions as the chair. Questions about the endorsement process should be sent to John Mangan (john.mangan@yale.edu).

Signature of the Applicant: ______________________________ Date: ______________________________

Signature of Department Chair: ______________________________ Date: ______________________________

Signature of the Language Program Director, if applicable: ______________________________ Date: ______________________________

*Please attach a current copy of your CV and a 2-3 page detailed project proposal, which should include:
1. Project Abstract (up to 500 words)
2. Rationale for the Project (500-1000 words)
   In this section, the applicant should give pedagogical justification for the project, list available resources related to it, as well as demonstrate reasonable familiarity with the current state of research in the field.
3. Project Description (500-1000 words)
   In this section the applicant should address the history and origins of the proposed project, the work already done for it, if any, describe the project’s overall structure and its specific elements.
   Applications must describe the proposed project and how it will advance the applicant’s teaching and professional development and serve the teaching program of the applicant’s department or program.
4. Bibliography
5. Detailed Timetable for the Project (Fall Term or Spring Term)
6. Digital Resources (if any)
7. Action Research Component (if any)

All applications will be reviewed by the Language Study Committee, which will make its recommendations to the Teaching Resource Advisory Committee (TRAC) within the FAS Dean’s Office. The committee may take the following actions: (1) approve the proposal as-is; (2) approve, but suggest a different term in which the fellowship is taken; (3) request revision and resubmission; or (4) reject the proposal.